

ЕРДЕН МУХАМЕТОВ

YERDEN MUKHAMETOV

FOUNDER & MANAGING DIRECTOR

Yerden Mukhametov is the Founder and Managing Director of SASSA Group, an international commodity trading and strategic advisory firm headquartered in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

Mr. Mukhametov has more than two decades of executive experience across commodity trading, logistics, industrial services, corporate development, and cross-border commercial operations. His expertise includes commercial structuring, strategic partnerships, international logistics, contract execution, and the development of cross-border supply chains.

He has contributed to the execution of international trading initiatives across Central Asia, the Middle East, Latin America, and Asia, working with industrial companies, investors, and international trading partners.

At SASSA Group, Mr. Mukhametov leads the company's corporate strategy, international partnerships, investment relations, and the development of long-term commodity supply platforms connecting producers with global markets. His work focuses on originating, structuring, and executing cross-border commodity transactions across emerging markets.